Dear Sir/Madam,

Invitation for International Conference

On behalf of the International conference on “Novel Antibiotic Resistance Breakers and Diagnostic Biomarkers 2017” organizing committee, we are delighted to invite you for the conference to be held on December 22-23 2017, at B. S. Abdur Rahman Crescent University, Vandalur, Chennai. This conference will cover the recent advances on antibiotic resistance and biomarkers in disease diagnosis and will be a platform for interaction between academicians, researchers and students from all around the world who are performing research in various aspects of antibacterial resistance and diseases .

I kindly request you to give wide publicity for this program in your department and to encourage your students/ Research scholars/ faculty to actively participate.

Thank you in advance for your support for our International conference. We look forward to hear from you at your earliest convenience. Please feel free to contact if you require any additional information via email (dean.sls@bsauniv.ac.in) or phone (Direct: 044-22759215, Ext 215).

Organizing Secretary,

Dr. S. Hemalatha
